RE: Cyr v. Addison Rutland Supervisory Union
Docket No. 1:12-cv-00105-jgm

Dear Counsel:

I am writing to you regarding the proposed Stipulated Discovery Schedule/Order (Document No. 12) that was recently electronically filed. The stipulated discovery schedule is not in compliance with Local Rule 26(a)(1) or (4)(b): providing for the completion of discovery no later than 8 months after the last answer was filed, or the date and time of the ENE session and the evaluator assigned.

Upon review of our records defendant has yet to file an answer. Pursuant to Local Rule 26(a)(2) the Discovery Schedule is due within 45 days after the filing of an answer. Upon the filing of said answer, the ENE Administrator must send a list of potential evaluators from the court's roster to the parties. Therefore, your proposed Discovery Schedule is premature at this time. Feel free to contact me should you have any questions/concerns.

Sincerely,

/s/ Lisa Wright
